Call for Participants

The Business and Economics Research Committee (BERC) will host the 10th Business Research Showcase Competition on May 13, 2022. This event will be held fully online via Zoom, due to the COVID-19 situation. This competition offers undergraduate and graduate students a unique forum to present their research, and compete for prizes. Participants are requested to submit research from a class project and/or individual capstone projects.

The competition consists of two tracks¹. Participants are requested to submit their research to one of these two tracks. Your mentor (professor) can advise you on the track.

Track 1: Analytics (2 winners)

Quantitative research methods such as descriptive analytics, regression analysis, predictive analytics, machine learning, or other big data analytics.

1st Prize $150 2nd Prize $100

Track 2: Others (2 winners)

Case analysis, content analysis, essays, and qualitative research methods such as interviews, focus groups etc.

1st Prize $150 2nd Prize $100

All accepted submissions will receive a certificate of participation.
